PRIORITY INVENTORY

To get a true picture of your priorities, keep track of the time spent on the following activities over a period of seven days. Write the total in the blank. When completed, analyze your week and decide where you need to make changes. Then make the changes!

PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD
- Average hours per week spent on personal Bible reading and prayer
- Average hours per week spent attending church (not volunteering time)

HUSBAND
- Average hours per week spent alone with your husband (awake!)

FAMILY
- Average hours per week enjoying your children (talking, playing, not school)
- Average hours per week shopping for your family’s needs (groceries, clothes...)
- Average hours per week taking care of family’s needs (housework, cooking, iron...)

JOB—HOMESCHOOLING
- Average hours per week planning homeschool, reading about, or in workshops
- Average hours per week shopping for homeschool supplies
- Average hours per week spent in actual teaching time
- Average hours per week spent traveling to extracurricular activities and classes

VOLUNTEERING/OUTREACH IN THE COMMUNITY
- Average hours per week spent volunteering at church (not attending church time)
- Average hours per week spent volunteering at other ministries or in the community

PERSONAL TIME
- Average hours per week spent in hobbies, fitness, or other recreation.
- Average hours per week spent reading, watching TV, or other relaxation
- Average hours per week spend on personal development (education, tapes, classes)
- Average hours per week spent talking on the phone
- Average hours per week spent on the computer or Internet
- Average hours per week spent in recreational shopping (not for necessities)
- Average hours per week spent sleeping?

OTHER
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent
- Average hours per week spent

© 2006 by Cindy Downes